TICKET BRINGS PARTY IN LINE; NO ILL-FEELING

Leaders at San Francisco Scent Victory in Names of Cox and Roosevelt

San Francisco, July 12.—A disposition to be elated over the nomination of James M. Cox for President and Franklin D. Roosevelt for Vice President exists among the chief men of the Democratic party at the close of the national convention.

Wounds of the spirited battle over the selection of the Presidential candidate had not time to heal, but those who opposed the nomination of Ohio's Governor have found balm in the action of the convention in choosing the young Assistant Secretary of the Navy for second place on the national ticket.

It is not the Roosevelt name alone a name that they hope to conjure with, that has caused the delegates to whiff a smell of victory with keener nostrils. They are of the opinion that the ticket has been buttressed mightily by the Roosevelt addition.

Ill-Feeling Is Dwindling

The story of how Mr. Cox came to be nominated is an old story now, although few hours have passed since that early morning scene in San Francisco's spacious Auditorium when the rush to the Cox banner was begun by McAdoo supporters who suddenly conceived a strong fondness for Cox music, set to the old tune of "He Rumbled," but with new words that substituted the rounded and sonorous "O-hi-o's" for the familiar refrain of the original song.

There had been much ill-feeling. Some of it was still apparent when the convention adjourned; all of it had not disappeared when the convention reassembled at noon. Later on, after Franklin D. Roosevelt had been nominated, those Democratic hopes that had been low over the Presidential contest found that their fit of the blues was fast disappearing.

Seen As Vote-getter

Throughout the convention, harrington those who found Mr. Cox objectionable on account of the wet sentiment attributed to him, there is feeling that from the viewpoint of vote-getting a better candidate could not have been nominated.

Edmund H. Moore, Youngstown, O., the Cox campaign manager, accepted this widespread view when he said: "Governor Cox was chosen because he measured up to the job. He was the most available candidate and the best man entered in the contest who would carry pivotal States."

On every side the comment of prominent Democrats was that Mr. Cox had a better chance of carrying Ohio than his Republican opponent, Warren G. Harding.

See Kentucky For Cox

Without asserting any confident claims of victory, for it is admitted that there will be a hard-fought contest, Democratic leaders stated that Mr. Cox has a better chance than Mr. Harding of carrying Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky. They feel he has excellent chances in New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts and Connecticut, would keep Maryland in the Democratic column and might be strong enough to win in Illinois.

The Kentucky delegation in the convention was particularly anxious to have Mr. Cox chosen. Its members contended that Mr. Cox was the only man available for the Presidential nomination who would be able to bring Kentucky back into the Democratic column.

This state of feeling contributed to the Cox strength among the delegates.

FATHER OF JAMES COX

"HAPPIEST MAN IN U. S."

Columbus, Ohio, July 8.—Residents of this little town are bursting with pride. They claim for themselves some of the honor attendant on the residence here of Gilbert Cox, father of the Democratic Presidential nominee, Gov. James M. Cox.

Mr. Cox, who is 87 years old, was sitting on the porch of his modest home when a representative of the Associated Press called.

"I am the happiest and proudest man in the United States. I hope and know that Jim will be as good a President as he has been a son," he said.

STATE DRY LEADER IS STRONG FOR COX

Frankfort, Ky., July 12.—The Rev. George Waggoner, Representative from Scott County, and leader of the prohibition forces in the House during the fight for submission of the Statewide amendment and spokesman on the floor for the Anti-Saloon League in passage of the McLehman enforcement law, is one of the original Cox men.

While in the Capital he expressed his gratification over the action of the Democratic National Convention.

"I was won over to Mr. Cox when he spoke in Georgetown," the Rev. Mr. Waggoner said, "and he has been my choice from the start. What I saw of him and heard afterward impressed me that he is a man of breadth of vision and a man of action."

NO FIGHT FOR SECOND PLACE

San Francisco, July 9.—Franklin D. Roosevelt, New York, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, was chosen by acclamation by the Democratic National Convention as the party's candidate for Vice President.

The convention, which had been in session since June 28, and had been deadlocked up to the forty-fourth ballot on the selection of a Presidential nominee, chose Mr. Roosevelt in a few minutes.

1882—Born in Dutchess county N. Y., Jan. 30.

1904—Graduated from Harvard and the law school of Columbia university.

1905—Married Anna Eleanor Roosevelt. Mr. Roosevelt is a fifth cousin to Theodore.

1907—11—Practiced law in New York.

1910—13—Member of the New York state senate, resigning March 17, 1913.

1913—Appointed assistant secretary of the navy March 17.

1918—In charge of inspection of United States naval forces in European waters.

1919—In charge of demobilization of United States naval forces in Europe.

COX-WILSON CONFERENCE IS BEING ARRANGED

Washington, July 12.—President Wilson and Gov. James M. Cox, Ohio Democratic standard-bearer for 1920, are expected to have a conference in the White House soon.

Mr. Cox has been in direct touch with the White House since his nomination, and Administration officials expect an early meeting.

Former Representative T. T. Ansberry, of Ohio, who is one of Mr. Cox's close friends, and went to the convention as a delegate from the District of Columbia, is now en route to Dayton to consult Mr. Cox.

COX IS CONGRATULATED BY ANTI-SALOON LEADER

Atlanta, Ga., July 12.—Representative Upshaw, Georgia, a former vice president of the Anti-Saloon League, sent Governor Cox, Ohio, a telegram of hearty congratulations on his nomination as the Democratic candidate for President.

Mr. Upshaw predicted victory for ticket and added:

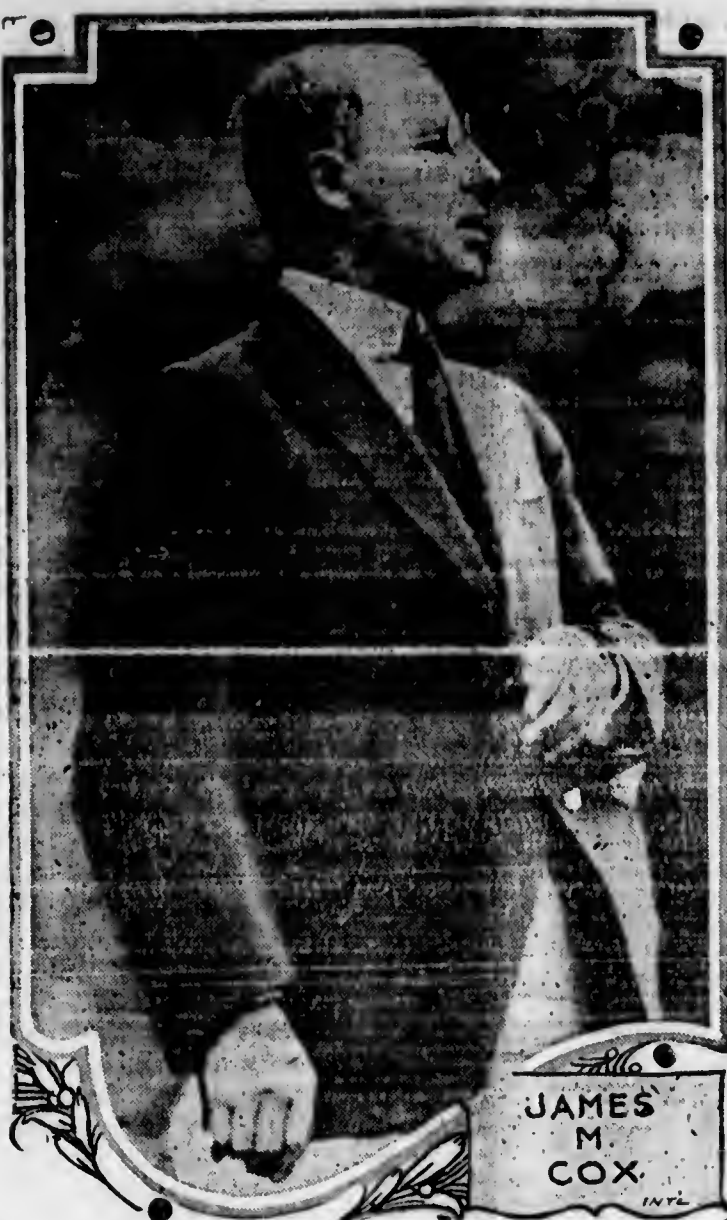

"While frankly you were not my first choice I now feel that the nation can trust at its helm a man with your great administrative record as Governor, who prays at his mother's grave for help and guidance of Almighty God."

SNAKE MATRICULATES IN PIANOFORTE CLASS

Columbus, Ind., July 8.—For seven days and nights Mrs. Sarah Vance, Jewell County, heard the discordant playing of her piano at intervals.

When she went into the room the playing invariably ceased. There had been no one at the piano.

Today she opened it. A black snake, seven feet long, had crawled into the instrument.

JAMES M.
COX.

GOMPERS IS PLEASED AT NOMINATION OF COX

Chicago, July 8.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, who was in Chicago for a few hours expressed his pleasure at the action of the Democratic National Convention in nominating Governor Cox.

"He is a good, clean, fair man," said Mr. Gompers. "He was the logical candidate. Palmer's candidacy, though, was ridiculous. He never had a chance. Those Cox delegates would have stuck if they deadlocked the convention all summer."

Mr. Gompers had been to San Francisco.

HARDING CITES CARTOON; HE AND COX NEWSIES

Columbus, O., July 8.—In a congratulatory telegram to Governor Cox, received at the Governor's office here from Senator Harding, the Republican nominee, Senator Harding says:

"I recall a much remarked cartoon which portrayed you and me as newsboys contesting for the White House delivery. It seems to have been prophetic. As an Ohioan and a fellow publisher I congratulate you on your notable victory."

WATTERSON'S FELICITATIONS PLEASE GOV. COX MOST

Dayton, Ohio, July 12.—One of the most highly prized felicitations received by Gov. James M. Cox came from Henry Watterson. The Governor said he was particularly pleased over it because Mr. Watterson represented to him the ideal Journalist.

INDEPENDENT PAPER IN EVANSVILLE FAVORS COX

Evansville, Ind., July 9.—The Evansville Press, an afternoon independent newspaper, announced it will support James M. Cox for President. The Press gave three rea-

Cox Nomination Is Strongest That Could Have Been Made, Says Henry Watterson

Henry Watterson gave this statement to The Courier-Journal from his country home, Mansfield, Jeffersontown.

"The nomination of Governor Cox will solidify and reanimate the Democratic party in every section of the Union. It is the very strongest that could have been made, and gives Democrats a buoyant presage of victory."

"The Genius of Destiny lays loving hand upon the Buckeye Boy, and with laughing eyes exclaims: 'Faith-sons. First, because of Governor Cox's progressive and patriotic record as Governor; second, because he is neither choice, champion nor chattel of any political machine; Presidential or otherwise; third, because his chief opponent, Warren G. Harding, is the choice and champion of not the chattel of such a machine."

SUES FOR PART IN G. O. P. PRIMARY FOR CONGRESS

Frankfort, Ky., July 10.—Suit was filed in the Franklin Circuit Court by J. B. Jones, Paducah, to compel Fred A. Vaughn, Secretary of State, to place his name on the Republican primary ballot in the First District congressional race.

Because there was no declaration that Mr. Jones was a registered Republican, the Secretary of State was preparing to issue a certificate of nomination to Miller Hughes, Wickliffe, the other candidate.

Mr. Jones contends that he is a Republican and if he is registered as a Democrat it was an error of the registration officer.

REED STICKS TO PARTY, BUT WON'T BACK LEAGUE

Chicago, July 12.—Senator James Reed, Missouri, who was refused a seat at the Democratic National Convention, announced here that he will "support the Democratic ticket and always be a Democrat, though always maintaining my present position on the League of Nations." Mr. Reed is a member of the Senate Committee investigating campaign expenditures.

CHARGED WITH STEALING

Harold Woodson, Raymond Withrow and Will Alexander were placed under arrest at Central City, on a charge of theft. They are accused of entering Barnes' Garage, at Central City, last Friday night, July 2, and carrying away a number of automobile tires.

SNIPERS RAIN SHOTS ON KENTUCKY MINERS

Men Entering Pits Return Fire
Coming From Mountain On West Virginia Line

Williamson, W. Va., July 12.—Employers at the mine of the Borderland Coal Company at Borderland, W. Va., five miles west of Williamson, were fired on this morning as they were entering the mine, which is on the Kentucky side of Tug River, according to reports reaching here.

Those firing at the miners are said to have been on a mountainside on the opposite bank of the river, and also, directed shots at the tipples which is on the West Virginia side. None of the shots was effective.

The miners are reported to have returned the fire when the fusillade was directed at them, but whether any of the attacking party was struck could not be ascertained.

Borderland is in Mingo County where union miners have been ordered out on strike.

Fifteen special deputies were sworn in late here and rushed to the West Virginia-Kentucky line, where the miners were fired on.

Reports indicated that the situation was quiet and that the deputy sheriffs were on guard duty.

In the regular June examination held at Fordsville, 18 applied for teacher's certificates. Owing to the fact that the examination papers are now graded at Frankfort, the returns have just recently arrived. 9 applicants have been granted First class certificates and 5 have been granted Second class certificates.

YOUNG LADY INJURED

Miss Clara Patton was painfully injured, last Wednesday, when the horse she was driving became frightened while near the residence of Miss Patton's uncle, Squire James A. Patton, of this city, and overturned the buggy. She was badly bruised as well as receiving a dislocated ankle. Physicians here dressed her injuries and she was taken to her home near Concord, by Mr. Joe Westerfield.

FATHER-IN-LAW GETS ON COX BAND WAGON

Thomas S. Blair, Jr., Republican
Is For Cox on Prohibition
Issue and All Others

Chicago, July 12.—Thomas S. Blair Jr. is a Republican, but he is going to vote for his son-in-law, Gov. Cox.

"There is not a better man in the country for any job," asserted Mr. Blair. "I, of course, know him intimately. He is a man of the soil, a farmer at heart, which gives him that bluntness and directness which have made him famous. This is polished off by his training as a newspaper man. He will make one of the best Presidents this country has had."

Mr. Blair was first apprised of the nomination at 4:30 o'clock this morning, when his daughter called him by long distance telephone.

"Hello daddy," she cried. "Jim has been nominated."

"Well," mused Mr. Blair later. "The acid test of a man comes when that man marries your daughter. Margaretta had been my housekeeper since her mother died. She did everything to keep my home attractive for me. Then she married Gov. Cox. I was happy, as I knew she had the right man."

"There are many who will vote for him on account of his wet leanings. He explained the unfairness of the Volstead law in about the best words I ever heard. On one occasion he said to me:

"The spectacle of changing our character of government when 2,000,000 American patriots were in Europe fighting for the preservation of the Government itself, no man can justify. That's his idea about Prohibition. I agree with him."

'HOT JOB,' SAYS GLASS; 'HOT PLATFORM,' RETORT

San Francisco, July 2.—Senator Glass worked hard at reading the platform in the convention and paused many times to wipe the perspiration from his face.

"It's a hot job," he remarked just after he had read the agricultural plank.

"It's a hot platform," shouted a delegate and there was a ripple of laughter and cheering. So far the convention was going smoothly enough.

TERIBLY MIXED

"The Southern farmer gets up at the alarm of a Connecticut clock. Buttons his Chicago suspenders to Detroit overalls. Washes his face with Cincinnati soap made in a Pennsylvania pan. Sits down to a Grand Rapids table. Eats Chicago meat and Indiana hominy fried in Kansas lard on a St. Louis stove. Puts a New York bridle on a Kentucky mule fed with Iowa corn. Plows a farm covered by an Ohio Mortgage with a Chattanooga plow. When bed-time comes he reads a chapter from a Bible printed in Boston and says a prayer written in Vermont. Crawls under a blanket made in New Jersey to be kept awake by a South Carolina dog—the only home product on the place." —Ex.

KINDNESS BRINGS RESULTS.

A few years ago a ragged boy was taken up from Main Street in Burlington by the Rev. R. H. Tandy, who was pastor of the Baptist church at the time, and the good man urged the boy to attend Sunday-school. The boy said he had no clothes to wear to church. A woman member gave the boy a suit, and he joined the church and Sunday-school. He went to Illinois and grew up to young manhood, and recently married a young lady said to be worth about $25,000. Acts of kindness bring great results.

A CANDIDATE, NEVERTHELESS

We regret to state that Jailer Fess Whiteaker is now in jail serving a sentence imposed on him by the Circuit Court at its last session. Sheriff Tolliver has charge of the jail and Mack Yonts is acting as deputy for the time being. In jail Fess declares he will be a candidate for County Judge at the next election.—Whitesburg Eagle.

ALL BUT ONE COAL FIELD IN STATE GAINS IN CARS

Washington, July 11.—General improvement in transportation facilties for coal mines in Kentucky, with the exception of the Hazard region, was reported by the Geological Survey for the week ending June 26.

In the Hazard field the transportation loss, due to lack of cars, jumped 10 per cent.

The Northeastern Kentucky field showed a loss of 55.2 per cent compared with 6-2 per cent for the previous week; the western field 43 per cent compared with 58.6 per cent; the South in Appalachian 37-4 per cent compared with 44.8 per cent, and the Harlan 58.3 per cent compared with 64.2 per cent.

THE CHAUTAUQUA

The Radcliffe Chautauqua here last week was both entertaining and educational. The afternoon programs were devoted to Community Building and the night program to Americanism. While the ability of some of the speakers was not what might have been expected from a company having the reputation of the Radcliffe people, yet, they presented many splendid suggestions for the good of the community and those attending received an inspiration to be better citizens of their city, county, state and nation.

Most of the musical numbers were splendid. The Peabody concert Trio and the Marvin Dramatic Co., rendered some especially good music. "The Kentucky Songbird" a member of the Marvin Dramatic and Musical Co., carried away her audience more completely than any other member of the musical company. Miss Rose Kohler, the story teller, also won every member of her audience.

The Chautauqua will present a series of programs, at Fordsville, next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The Committee did not see fit to have the Chautauqua return, next year.

TOWN TALK—AINT IT?

Custodian Worth Tichenor, of the Hartford S. S. S., reports business unusually good since the advent of green apples and blackberries on the local market. Deposits are frequent among the regulars, and visitors are enthusiastic whenever they feel inclined to call at headquarters.

If the "moonshine" had held out, there seems to be no doubt in the mind of the average Hartford politician but what Josh Griffith and Lee Summerman would both have been placed at the head of the National Democratic ticket at San Francisco and in all probability both for first place.

It doesn't ruffle Kelly Riley's feeling in the least to call his low neck and short sleeves limonslime a plain Lizzie instead of a Lizzette, but when it comes to appropriating part of its scanty make-up and falling to return same, it makes the Pumpkins, large can, ..... 65c feathers turn the wrong way on some of his springers, and that's what gets his goat.

Randall Collins has added 99 1/2 per cent to the attractiveness of his residence property within the past few days by cutting the weeds, white washing the foundation of the building and shade trees near by, putting in tiling where there was formerly an ugly ditch, screening, and in many other ways smoothing off the rough places. Lets you and I follow suite.

One of the new tractors recently purchased by the county, and for the past several weeks left exposed to the weather on south main street, is fast changing color and is now a thing of beauty—brown. The process of preservation may be both economical and expedient, but when the taxpayers are called on for repairs or possibly a new machine next spring, somebody's going to kick, or get kicked.

To Buy at Loom-End Prices You Must Pay Cash for Your Purchases

Store Will Be Closed Thursday, July 15th, to Mark Down the Stock for the Big Sale

There has been much agitation and speculation in the last sixty days on the high cost of living. A great many stores in the larger towns have put on discount sales, reducing the prices twenty per cent on their entire stock, claiming they are performing a patriotic duty by reducing the high cost of living. The real reason in most cases was, they marked their merchandise too high in the first place, and even after the 20 per cent reduction in price they were still getting as much or more for their merchandise than merchants generally all over the country. In view of this patriotic camouflage, we wish to call your attention again to our policy:

We Have Always Set the Pace In Price

We have always depended on small profits and big volume of business to make money. Any merchant who sells merchandise grade for grade cheaper than we do will soon be looking for a new job. With these facts before you, we want to venture the assertion that the high cost of living can't be materially reduced until the demand along every line is less than the supply. The beginning is not even in sight. Don't be deceived, supply your needs. With liberal reductions in prices you can always buy ahead and save money.

Our Semi-Annual Bargain Feast Will Be Spread On July 16th.

Hundreds are looking forward now, waiting anxiously for the money-saving opportunities it affords. According to our usual custom, we have ransacked every department in our store for odds, ends and broken lots. Every short length that we can give you at less than manufacturer's cost. Besides the accumulation from our regular stock, we have assembled thousands of yards of Loom-End Calicoes, Percals, Ginghams, Shirtings, Silks, Scrims, Pajama Checks, Organdies, Voils, White Goods, Etc., which we offer you at less than manufacturer's cost today, and considering the present price levels and the price of merchandise for fall, this sale will be one of the biggest money-saving sales we have ever had.

Remember the Date. Be on Hand the First Day,

and come back every day until you are sure you have seen everything we have on the bargain tables. May be you will buy something, and may be you won't, but come and see what's doing.

Ready-To-Wear Department

MRS. MYRTLE GRAHAM

Mrs. Myrtle Graham, wife of H. C. Graham, died at her home, near Narrows, June 13, 1920. Funeral services were conducted the following day, at Narrows First Baptist church, by her former pastor, Rev. Birch Shields, after which her remains were taken to Smith Cemetery for interment.

She was 29 years, 6 months of age, was converted and joined the Baptist church at Narrows at the age of 14, and was married to Herbert Graham, May 21, 1911. To this union were born two children, Norman, now 7 years of age and Francis, now 3 years of age.

Myrtle took to her bed in March 1919 with the dreadful disease, Tuberculosis. By the instruction of her physician she was taken to Harwood sanitarium at Louisville, June 10, 1919, but as no improvement was made, at her request she was brought home. Nov. 15 to spend her last days with her family. She bore her suffering patiently and her death was peaceful and easy and triumphant.

By her sunny disposition, she won a host of friends wherever she went, and never can that smiling face and loving voice be erased from our memory. The work those hands have done; the words those lips have uttered will stand as a monument to her true womanly character. While her voice is hushed here on earth, there is one more voice in heaven singing praises with the angels.

May we all so live, that when life's fitful fever is over, we will meet with loved ones over in that beautiful beyond, where we'll never say "Good bye."

To Stop Coughing, Sneezing, Wheezing

Unseasonable spring weather left a number of coughs and colds. Now comes the time of hay fever and asthma and more persons than ever will be coughing, sneezing and wheezing. No wonder there is a tremendous demand for Foley's Honey and Tar, that old reliable family remedy for coughs, colds, hay fever, asthma and croup. It heals and soothes that raw, rasping feeling in the throat, clears the passages and makes breathing easier. —(Advertisement).

BOYS

BOYS are well-known. You don't have to go to far lands or to the County Fair to look upon them. Everywhere, it is still the style to have Boys.

Perhaps you are trying to run one or more Boys right this minute. Then you will know that since the world began they were never so tremendously important as now. Your hopes and your aims center on them. You must deliver them out of Boyhood into successful Manhood.

Will your sons stay with the land, or will the will-o-the-wisp of the cities call them away? Armies of country Boys, who could be the most and most successful on farms, respond to the artful glamour of town life before they are old enough to know their own minds. They do not know that the rewards of country life—in money, health, and happiness—are far greater. Make them realize that! Guide the restless ambitions of your Boys and spare no pains!

Machines have been a powerful factor in stemming the flow to the cities. Machines banish drudgery and make labor interesting; machines foster the love of mechanics in the Boy; machines are builders of fortunes.

You now own many of the machines made by the International Harvester Company. We are headquarters for the International Full Line, including Titan tractors, International engines, and manure spreaders, Primrose cream separators, McCormick and Deering harvesting, haying, and corn machines, tillage tools, and plows, etc. Give the Boys every chance for liking farming and farm life. Perhaps more of these machines will help keep them contented.

NELSON FARMERS #### WILL TEST COWS

Lexington, Kentucky—Farmers of Nelson County have organized a cow testing association, with twenty members, who own 365 cows. E. M. Prewitt, of the Agricultural Experiment Station, and County Agent, C. L. Hill, of Nelson County, assisted in the work of forming the organization. This makes the fifth such association in the state, the purpose of the cow testing association is to test grade cows for the percentage of butter fat in their milk and thus to determine which are best fitted for milking purposes.

The Department of Dairy Extension has also established three Register of Merit Associations, where official registration can be had for cattle that fulfill the requirements of the organization. These two movements, both of them recent, mark a long step forward in the increase of both the quality and quantity of the dairy products of the state, inasmuch as they offer some means by which the best milk-cows can be determined and the unproductive ones disposed of.

Mr. Prewitt, who has charge of the dairy work of the station, said that Kentucky is the leading state of the South in dairy products, and bids fair to become one of the leading dairy states of the country.

KILLING OF LICE

ON POULTRY EASY

Lexington, Ky.—The eradication of lice in poultry by the use of Sodium has proved to be very effective and economical. Commercial Sodium fluoride can be obtained from most drug stores and should be obtained in a dry, finely powdered form. There are two methods of using this treatment: (1) by the pinch method, and (2) by the dip method.

The pinch method consists of holding the bird with the left hand by the wings while with the right hand a small pinch of the fluoride is placed in the region of the vent, one beneath each thigh, one on the under side of each wing, one on the wattle at the base of the neck, and one on the hip. The powder should be distributed through the feathers as much as possible, so that enough will remain on the feathers for some days to kill the lice that hatch out after the application is made.

The second method is by dipping in a solution made by dissolving one-half pound of Sodium fluoride in ten gallons of luke-warm water. The bird should be held in the left hand by the wings and placed in the solution on its side, while the right hand works the solution well under the feathers. The head can then be quickly submerged and the chicken released in a house with plenty of clean straw on the floor, where it will quickly dry itself. This method should not be used on a damp, cold day as the birds will not properly dry themselves and colds may result.

WHAT ABOUT WOOL PRICES?

Lexington, Ky.—The sheep men face a critical time right now. Sheep men are panicky. When prices are high there is a rush to get in at high prices, but let wool, lamb or mutton take a drop and the result is just as great in the other direction. At present the wool market is discouraging with buyers talking lower priced wool. Certainly there is no over supply of fine wools. The demand for the coarser grades is slow as the mills are not pushing for orders for goods made from the lower grades of wool. The season's wool market has not yet opened and when trading finally gets started in a substantial way it may be that prices will not be so discouraging after all.

The main facts bearing on the present wool market are:

- (1) Credit stringency.
- (2) Difficulties in transportation both of raw wools to the mills and finished products to the retailers.
- (3) Late shearing, due to cold weather.

The first two factors not only affect the wool trade but the manufacturing interests as well. Unless the mills are in position to buy wools to be used in taking care of orders placed, things are sure to slow up. The best opinion in the trade predicts a moderate reaction from the present slump in prices, but when it will come, no one can say.

The co-operative pooling and consignment of wools is larger this year than ever before. Growers are realizing the benefits derived from such a plan as their wool now sells on merit and the good clips bring a premium for extra care and attention. This is the only sound system and in its continuation rests the placing of the American wool clip on a superior product basis.

The big question now is, will the wool growers support their co-operative wool marketing agencies at this critical time or get scared and let their wool go to the first buyer making an offer, however low it may be? —FARM

A Handful Of Helps

If your stoves rust while not in use in summer, this can be prevented by oiling them well and then covering with newspapers.

The oil-cloth on your kitchen table which cracks and breaks so easily will last longer if, when covering the table, a piece of heavy brown paper is put on first.

Why run the risk of spoiling those pretty curtains which you have just made before passing the rod through the casing of a curtain slip the finger of an old kid glove over the end of the rod. This will greatly lessen the risk of damage to the muslin or lace.

Then there is the lamp chimney which one would rather have frosty than plain, because the light is made softer and therefore more restful. A frosty white coating for this can be secured by dipping into a strong solution of Epsom salts and vinegar. After dipping into this solution they should be allowed to dry.

Your umbrella will last much longer if you will remember one thing: Don't stand it on the point when wet. Always stand a wet umbrella on its handle to dry. The water will then run out of instead of into the part where the ribs and silk meet. This will prevent the metal from rusting and the silk from rotting.

Do not forget that the printing ink on newspapers is an enemy to moths; therefore old newspapers can be used to advantage in wrapping articles to put away in summer.

That leather chair which is beginning to look shabby may be freshened up by rubbing with white of an egg.

To destroy odor of burning lamp wicks, hold new lamp wicks in vinegar and then thoroughly dry them; then there will be no odor from them when burning.

To remove grease from the floor, try using soda and hot water.

An excellent fire-kindler is made by soaking corn-cobs in kerosene oil. When needed, put a cob in the stove, set fire to it, and put on the fuel.

If you would have good coffee, always keep the inside of the pot clean. Boil it out once in a while with soap water and wood ashes and scour it thoroughly.

A little table salt added to the starch helps in the ironing.

To wash flannels, put borax in the water, and the flannels will look like new and will not shrink.

Black hose will retain their color if washed in warm suds of water and soap, with a little vinegar in the rinse.

Should soot fall upon the carpet, cover it with dry salt, and it may be swept up without smears.

If a small portion of washing bluing is used in the rinsing water, the tumblers will shine and glisten.

Ribbons should be washed in cold suds and not rinsed.
